H.M. King Charles III Crowned King of United Kingdom

Her Majesty the Queen's son

London , 14.05.2023, 20:27 Time

USPA NEWS - Britain crowns the longest waiting monarch and heir to the British throne, the former Prince of Wales and now the sovereign His Majesty King Charles III of United Kingdom. Shazada Hayat President UICF (UK) and founder of Asian Sports Council UK, had the honour of meeting His Majesty King Charles III on many occasions, supporting and promoting the Prince's Trust, especially amongst the British Asian community.

Shazada Hayat said, Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II was the greatest Queen in the world and the longest serving monarch in history. This is most certainly a tall act to follow, by any king or queen, not just in Britain, but in the world. The British Queen's remarkable achievement and service was not just to her beloved Britain, but also to the Commonwealth countries of which Her Majesty the Queen was the Head of the Commonwealth. Her Majesty the Queen's son and heir to the throne has been the longest serving Prince of Wales in British history. Whilst it is a fact Her Majesty's glorious reign was the longest in British history. The British Queen ruled with passion, compassion, dedication, grace and utmost patriotism. In fact, she upheld the word "Great" in Great Britain.

The Queen II and the Duke of Edinburgh together thoroughly groomed Prince Charles to and for paramount heights. So much so the Prince of Wales has been the hardest and longest working prince in history. In essence Prince Charles was seen as the Shadow King of Britain throughout working alongside Her Majesty the Queen for the glory of the nation, for over five decades. His Majesty King Charles III has, just like his mother the gracious Queen, achieved many outstanding achievements nationally and internationally.

King Charles' jewel in the crown has to be his world outstanding organisation, The Princes Trust. Through this Prince's Trust millions of young children were given hope and provided an opportunity to be able to stand on their own two feet, to pursue their individual dreams. Today, the world leaders are very concerned about the environment, wildlife and the catastrophe of global warming and the damage done to the ozone layer by humans. His Majesty King Charles III, for over fifty years as the pioneer and lone ranger has been campaigning and warning the world of the damage mankind was doing to Earth. This to mean the damage to nature, the green environment, endangering human life and wildlife caused by human greed of economics. Although, the world leaders very much value the enormous contribution by British King Charles III, many countries are still dragging their feet dealing with the environmental catastrophe and still polluting the land, sea and air for financial greed at the expense of choking life on Earth.

If there was in the world, one person, a royal and a king to uphold the shining torch of Britain's greatest Monarch Queen Elizabeth II, then it has to be said it is her beloved son who do can this, His Majesty King Charles III. It is also fair to say, His Majesty King Charles III will most certainly continue to serve Britain and the Commonwealth in the true tradition and footsteps of his beloved mother Queen Elizabeth II. The most important fact to ascertain is, it is not what King Charles will do in the future that will define him, His Majesty King Charles III has already carved his name in history as the longest serving Prince of Wales in history, who has achieved so much for Britain and the Commonwealth.

HM King Charles III is the only monarch in the history of the world to whom the international multifait community looks upon as not just defender of a faith, but defender of all faiths.

Shazada Hayat went on to say, I wish to take this historic opportunity of congratulating His Majesty King Charles III, on his coronation and becoming King and Head of the Commonwealth. I also wish to take this opportunity to commend and congratulate the outstanding service to Britain and the Commonwealth and have had the pleasure of supporting their outstanding achievement and service to the nation, Baroness Patricia Scotland and Rt. Hon. Penny Mordaunt MP. Baroness Scotland has undoubtedly been the most outstanding Secretary General of the Commonwealth. She has taken the Commonwealth to unprecedented heights of unity and success and at the same time promoting Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth's II's vision and directions and the British policies, for which Baroness Scotland has won a special place in the hearts and minds of Britain and the Commonwealth countries. She has achieved admiration from Her Majesty the late Queen of Britain and also continuing to support at the paramount height His Majesty King Charles III.

Baroness Scotland is seen as the trusted confidante of the former Queen of Britain and also the current King. She has played a very special part in the coronation of His Majesty King Charles III.

The former British Defence Secretary and Minister of British Army Rt. Hon. Penny Mordaunt MP, the current Lord President of the Council and Leader of the House of Commons, has served Britain with utmost patriotism and dedication through British politics. Widely tipped as the next prime minister of Britain in waiting. Penny Mordaunt as she is well known, has served her beloved Britain with utmost patriotism and with pride and honour to uphold her allegiance to the British monarch. She also played a very significant part as the first female to be the Lord President of the Privy Council at the coronation of King Charles III, holding the great sword of honour which was presented to the new king on his coronation.

The British and the Commonwealth admire the outstanding services of King Charles III, stemming back over five decades as the Prince of Wales. We all look forward to working with and supporting His Majesty King Charles III in his future endeavours as the King of United Kingdom and Head of the Commonwealth. May God bless the King, said Shazada Hayat.
